Ferrari F430

With its sporty, muscular design and performance to match, the Ferrari F430 leaves no doubt that it owns any road ahead of it. Low, wide and built for motoring, the F430's aerodynamic design pulls the car down the roadway, while the all-alloy skin and chassis keep it lightweight and easy to handle. The manettino lets you indulge the ultimate driver's fantasy, allowing one-touch, dial-'n'-play programming of the car's high-tech engine, transmission, and chassis management systems. You can feel the deep, visceral connection to the screaming red Grand Prix cars that now dominate Formula 1.
