Lamborghini Gallardo Spyder

You could argue that the Gallardo justifies its $233,000 price tag by displaying one of the most striking exterior forms in automobiles. Or you could argue that having a 0-to-60 time of just over 4 seconds, a top speed of 196 mph (192 with the top down), and a superbly stiff open-top structure makes it a worthy candidate to replace that summer home you've been eyeing. Or you could decide that, with its sumptuous interior and all-wheel drive, the Gallardo Spyder represents a unique offering in the exotic-car world. Our advice? Stop thinking, power the top down under the carbon-fiber cover, and start counting the stares.
